SCHOOL NEWS FROM THE PRINCIPAL

The Home and School has kicked off their yearly raffle. Tickets are $20 and will be on sale from August 12 to October 9. There are ten chances to win prizes ranging from $100 to $1,500. All money generated from this raffle will directly benefit the students of St. George. If you are interested in a ticket, please contact a school family member or the school office at 897-3645 or email Mrs. Grellner at lgrellner@saint-george-parish.org.

A huge thank you goes to Mark & Kathy Loethen, Neil & Heather Loethen, and Abby & Will Bradford. These wonderful people spent last weekend painting the school lobby, giving this area a much-needed facelift. The lobby looks fantastic! We still have other areas in the school that need to be painted. If you can help, please call Mrs. Grellner.

This week we “Knighted” Austin Dudenhoeffer son of Jason and Stacy Dudenhoeffer. Austin will be the 2020-21 St. George Knight. The St. George Knight is a visible symbol to take a stand against bullying.

Employment Opportunity: St. George is looking to hire a Virtus trained person for the after school program. If you are interested, please contact Tammy Tyree at 573-619-5780.

WHAT IS CYO

CYO stands for Catholic Youth Organization. The main purpose of CYO is to guide young Catholics to live a Christian life from a young age, develop trust between peers and live a happy life in a positive manner. Here at St. George we bring our high schoolers together each month during the school year to help build relationships between the teens as well as their community. After an opening prayer and a shared meal, we discuss topics, usually of their choosing, to help guide them and live their best lives. We also offer fun activities each month, outside of the meetings, to nurture those relationships and just let kids have good, clean fun. Meetings are the third Sunday of each month, September through April. Other activities are usually scheduled once a month as well. All high schoolers are always welcome to any or all meetings. Our first meeting is Sunday, September 20th at 6pm. We are looking forward to another great year!

GREETING CARD MINISTRY

The greeting card ministry will be meeting to write cards to those on our prayer list on Wednesday, September 16 at 9am in the Notre Dame Conference Room. Anyone wanting to participate is welcome.

CEMETERY MARKER REPAIRS

The St. George Cemetery Board will be raising some of the flat markers and Veteran Markers that have sunken into the ground. If you would like to help fix your loved ones marker, please join us and bring a shovel. We are meeting on Saturday, September 26, 2020 at 10am at the cemetery, weather permitting. If you have any questions, please contact Nathan Veltrop at 573-619-6088.

ST. GEORGE FALL FESTIVAL

We will be hosting a modified version of our Fall Festival this year on Sunday, October 4. We will include a drive-through dinner available 11am – 7pm of fried chicken and German pot roast. The meal will not include desserts or homemade bread so those donations from each family will not be needed. We will have a cash raffle, the quilt auction, and the beer garden/soda stand. There will be no kids games, Bingo, country store, or sandwich stand, but many of those workers will be needed in other areas. This event will require many hands to keep things running smoothly. There is still time to donate towards your neighborhood quilt or meat using your envelopes. Each quilt costs the parish approximately $400 so donations are appreciated. We appreciate the support of all the parishioners to help make this event a success.

FALL FESTIVAL AUCTION

Due to all the necessary changes to our Fall Festival, this year we will begin our auction online via the St. George Catholic Church Facebook page located at www.facebook.com/stgeorgeparishlinn. Bidding will begin during the last half of September, so if you have any items to donate for inclusion in the auction, they must be turned in the parish office by Friday, September 11. If you have any questions, you can contact the quilt auction chairs Laura Bittle or Edna Kliethermes.

LIFE OF A SAINT- ST. NOTBURGA

Notburga was born to a peasant family. She worked as a kitchen maid at the house of Count Henry of Rattenberg at age 18. The count's wife, Otilia, ordered Notburga to feed leftover food to the house swine; she gave it to the poor instead. Warned about her behavior, Notburga fed the leftovers to the pigs, and gave much of her own food to the poor. Otilia saw this as a form of disobedience, and dismissed her. She then worked as a servant for a farmer in Eben am Achensee, Austria. However, when her mistress, the Lady Otilia, died, the count re-hired her, and she spent the rest of her life as a servant in his house, and working with the poor. Miracle stories are an integral part of Notburga's life. One time her master once saw her leaving the house with something bundled in her apron. Thinking he had caught her disobeying the order not to give away food, he demanded to see what she carried. The food and wine that she was carrying had turned into wood shavings and vinegar. Another time when she took the job with the peasant farm family in Eben am Achensee, Notburga made it a condition that she could skip her chores in order to attend Mass on Saturday night and on the eve of feast days. On one of these occasions, the farmer tried to get her to keep working. Notburga said she would let her sickle decide the matter, and threw it into the air. The sickle hung suspended in the air, and Notburga went to church. Another time shortly before her death, Notburga told Count Henry to place her corpse on a wagon drawn by two oxen, and to bury her wherever the oxen would stop on their own. The animals drew the wagon to the chapel of Saint Rupert, where she was buried.
