SCHOOL NEWS FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Congratulations to Sheila Hock! She won $100 from the Home & School Raffle with a ticket sold by Sarah & Allie Steinbeck.

November is a time we like to take a moment and be grateful for our blessings in our lives. We had 59 days of in-person learning, despite the many traditions that we have had to alter due to COVID. The teachers and staff are working very hard to maintain safety for the students. We are also grateful for the continued support of the parish, both spiritually and financially. We are grateful for the students, who show they have the ability to adapt to all the challenges and changes we have faced so far.

To all our honored veterans, the students and staff wish to thank you for your service and dedication to our country. We will miss having your presence on Veterans Day. For all our service men and women we offer the following prayer:

Father, bless our veterans and all who serve our nation defending our freedom. For those who bravely gave their lives, grant them eternal rest. For those who are serving, give them courage. For those who served, we offer our gratitude. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Congratulations to John Brandt, son of Tim and Melanie Brandt, Peyton Peters, son of Matt and Monica Peters, Landry Deeken, daughter of Wes Deeken and Liz Deeken, and Lillie Lutes, daughter of Jerry Lutes and Whitney Huff. These well-deserved students are the October Outstanding Warriors!

GOD’S MIRACLES IN OUR LIVES

Join us Monday, November 9 at 6:00pm for a Rosary and at 6:30pm as Vietnam Veteran Bob Gannon shares his PTSD struggles after serving on the battlefield and how God performed a miracle in his life. Heritage Hall, on the second floor of Notre Dame, will be open 4 - 6pm to display St. George historic memorabilia including a World War II display. All are welcome to attend. Please wear a mask when moving around the church buildings or if unable to keep 6 feet of social distancing from other households. The St. Ann’s Chili Supper scheduled to precede this event has been CANCELLED.

SCRIP HOLIDAY EXTRAVAGANZA

The Scrip program is sponsoring the 6 week Scrip Holiday Extravaganza again this year. For each week of sales Monday – Sunday, those that purchase over $100 of scrip will be entered in a weekly drawing of a $25 gift card that we currently have in stock. Sales for the first drawing begins on Monday, November 9. If over the 6 week period, over $500 is spent in scrip sales, that person will be eligible for our grand prize drawing on Monday, December 21 of a $100 Scrip card that is in stock. Don’t forget to use Scrip for your holiday shopping. There will be special rebates and new ship to home options available for those using the RaiseRight app to order. Contact Brenda at the parish office if you have any questions or need help to sign up with the RaiseRight app.

CATHOLIC STEWARDSHIP APPEAL

We thank all who have given generously to the annual Catholic Stewardship Appeal. As we look at our lives and the many blessings God has given us, let us give a portion to the Catholic Stewardship Appeal as a way of saying thank you to the Lord. Through the CSA, we make known the Kingdom of God by helping each other to live our faith and share our Gospel belief. Our gifts to the CSA and ministries it supports are our grateful offerings to God. % of Goal

CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE

The Western Catholic Union is hosting the giving tree in the back of church to help Osage County families having difficulty this Christmas. If you take an ornament from the tree, please have the wrapped gift returned to the rectory or the back of church by December 16.

LIFE OF THE SAINTS- ST. JOSAPHAT OF POLOTSK

Josaphat, an Eastern Rite bishop, is held up as a martyr to church unity because he died trying to bring part of the Orthodox Church into union with Rome. After an apprenticeship to a merchant, Josaphat turned down a partnership in the business and marriage to enter the monastery of the Holy Trinity at Vilna in 1604. In the monastery he found another soulmate in Joseph Benjamin Rutsky. Rutsky who had joined the Byzantine Rite under orders of Pope Clement VIII after converting from Calvinism shared the young Josaphat's passion to work for reunion with Rome. The two friends spent long hours planning how they could bring about that communion and reform monastic life. Josaphat faced problems when he became first bishop of Vitebsk and then Polotsk in 1617. The church there was literally and figuratively in ruins with buildings falling apart, clergy marrying two or three times, & monks & clergy everywhere not really interested in pastoral care or model Christian living. Within three years, Josaphat had rebuilt the church by holding synods, publishing a catechism to be used all over, and enforcing rules of conduct for clergy. His most compelling argument was his own life which he spent preaching, instructing others in the faith, visiting the needy of the towns. But despite all his work and the respect he had, the Orthodox separatists found fertile ground with they set up their own bishops in the exact same area. His former diocese of Vitebsk turned completely against the reunion and Josaphat. But what hurt even more was that the very Catholics he looked to for communion opposed him as well. In October 1623, Josaphat decided to return to Vitebsk to try to calm the troubles himself. The separatists saw their chance to get rid of Josaphat and discredit him. They formed a mob and killed Josaphat and attacked his servants. The violence had the opposite affect from that intended. Regret of the violence & the loss of their archbishop swung public opinion over toward the Catholics and unity. In 1867 Josaphat became the first saint of the Eastern church to be formally canonized by Rome.
