SCHOOL NEWS FROM THE PRINCIPAL

St. George had an excellent archery tournament. We had a total of 336 archery shooters participate in our tournament. A big thanks to all the parents that helped set up, work their shift, and tear down. It was a very successful tournament, and we had lots of compliments from other schools. The St. George archery team will attend state at Branson, March 19-21.

Congratulations to both junior high boys basketball teams that brought home 2nd place in the end of season CM-PALs championship games in their divisions last week. All of the St. George basketball teams worked hard and were a pleasure to watch. Thank you to all those that live-streamed the games to allow family and friends to watch from home.

Congratulations to John and Leo Brandt, sons of Tim and Melanie Brandt, Kaelyn Winkelman, daughter of Bob and Brenda Winkelman, Chloe Loethen, daughter of Neil and Heather Loethen, and Natalie Williams, daughter of Emma Randy Williams. These students were the St. George Outstanding Warriors for February. These students are excellent examples of our mission statement of being Christ-centered and faith directed in all that they do.

LIFE OF THE SAINTS - ST. JOHN OGILVIE

Born in 1579, John Ogilvie belonged to Scottish nobility. Raised a Calvinist, he was educated on the continent. Exposed to the religious controversies of his day and impressed with the faith of the martyrs, he decided to become a Catholic. In 1596, at age seventeen he was received into the Church at Louvain. Later John attended a variety of Catholic educational institutions, and eventually he sought admission into the Jesuits. He was ordained at Paris in 1610 and asked to be sent to Scotland, hoping some Catholic nobles there would aid him given his lineage. Finding none, he went to London, then back to Paris, and finally returned to Scotland. John's work was quite successful in bring back many people to the Faith. Some time later he was betrayed by one posing as a Catholic. After his arrest he was tortured in prison in an effort to get him to reveal the names of other Catholics, but he refused. After three trials, John was convicted of high treason because he converted Protestants to the Catholic Faith as well as denied the king's spiritual jurisdiction by upholding the Pope's spiritual primacy and condemning the oaths of supremacy and allegiance. Sentenced to death, the courageous priest was hanged at Glasgow in 1615 at the age of thirty-six.
