SCHOOL NEWS FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Congratulations to Stephanie Helmig. She is this week's $100 winner from the Home and School Raffle. The ticket was sold by Cooper and Blaze Coats.

St. George School will be taking off the week of Thanksgiving. During this season we take time to look at the blessings in our lives. We are truly blessed to have this parish who continues to support our school spiritually and financially. Our students are thriving because of the support they have received from our teachers, staff and the parish as a whole. Catholic education is a gift that can't be measured by earthly treasures, but by the degree we become disciples of Christ. We are called to be stewards of the faith and pass down our faith to the younger generation. We are blessed to have our Catholic school.

A Thanksgiving prayer: "Holy Father in Heaven, Creator of everything and source of all goodness and love, please look favorably upon us and receive our heartfelt gratitude in this period of thanksgiving. Lord thank you for all Your graces and blessings. Amen

CATHOLIC STEWARDSHIP APPEAL

 Catholic STEWARDSHIP APPEAL	"Consider this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each must do as already determined, without sadness or compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver." 2 CORINTHIANS 9:6-7
We are near the end of this year's Catholic Stewardship Appeal. For each one of you who chose to give back gratefully to God through a contribution to the CSA, we are deeply appreciative. Each gift, when combined with the gifts of thousands of other parishioners throughout the diocese, makes a very real difference. For those who have not yet joined your fellow Catholics in support of the CSA, we urge you to pray about it. You can also make a pledge by going online to diojeffcity.org and clicking the "Donate Now" button.

ST. EDMUND RICH

Archbishop of Canterbury England, who battled for discipline and justice, also called Edmund of Abingdon. Born in Abingdon, on November 30, 1180. he studied at Oxford, England, and in Paris, France. He taught art and mathematics at Oxford and was ordained. He spent eight years teaching theology and became Canon and treasurer of Salisbury Cathedral. An eloquent speaker, Edmund preached a crusade for Pope Gregory IX & was named archbishop of Canterbury. He became an advisor to King Henry III and presided in 1237 at Henry's ratification of the Great Charter. When Cardinal Olt became a papal legate with the patronage of King Henry, Edmund protested. A long-lasting feud between Edmund, the king, and his legate led him to resigning his see in 1240. He went to Pontigny, France, where he became a Cistercian. He died at Soissons, on November 16. Edmund was canonized in 1246 or 1247. A hall in Oxford bears his name.
